

ST. ELPHIN'S SCHOOL

ECONOMICS

Economics is taught in the Sixth Form to prepare students for 'A' level.

Although the aim is to achieve success in the examination, there is a general emphasis on economic literacy and numeracy applied to current economic problems. Teaching, in small classes, is conducted by way of formal lectures, seminars and individual tutorials.

MAY 1989